Case No. 96 D 00217

ORDER

Now on this 17th day of March, 2009, the above-captioned matter comes before the Court. The petitioner appears in person and by counsel Donald Hoffman. The respondent does not appear.

Thereupon the Court takes up the respondent's motion for recusal. The Court finds that pursuant to K.S.A. 20-311d the motion was improperly filed but after review and consideration denies the motion for recusal. If respondent wishes to proceed with her motion for recusal, she can proceed as outlined in K.S.A. 20-311d(b).

The Court finds the respondent was personally served with the Motion and Order to Appear and Show Cause for Contempt, scheduled for April 6, 2009 at 1:30 p.m., pursuant to K.S.A. 60-303(d)(4). The Court appoints Kevin Cook, a member of the bar of the State of Kansas, as counsel of record to appear on behalf of respondent in all stages of the Contempt proceedings herein.

The Court considers and denies the respondent's motion filed on December 29, 2008 entitled "Expedited Judicial Process", respondent's motion # 81 entitled "Motion For Court To Be In Compliance With Current Federal, State and Kansas Appellate Rulings In That The Last Of Order

Of This Court (December 16, 2008) Is In Direct Violation Of And Demands The Court To Correct Its Illegal Ruling Immediately And Take Any All Further Steps To Be In Compliance With The Current Laws Setforth”, motion # 83 entitled “Motions for Orders of Justice”, and motion # 85 which is entitled the same as motion number 81. The Court finds that none of the respondent’s motion allege any new information or any legal basis for overturning the Court’s decision of December 16, 2008 or offer any basis for granting a new trial or hearing pursuant to K.S.A. 60-259.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
