

I have been advised that the mother has not followed the order of this court entered January 23, 2004 arising from the Recommendation regarding clarification of parenting time in that she has failed to return the daughter to her home when required to do so and on both overnight weekends has taken the daughter to Kansas City without any notice of where they would be.

The mother has failed to pay the court ordered costs of Domestic Case Management with a billed balance due of $112.50

For these reasons I recommend the following:

For these reasons it is recommended as follows:

- A. All previous orders except as herein modified shall remain in effect.
- B. That all parenting time with the mother be limited for the foreseeable future to supervised visitation to be held at the north YMCA Safe Visits program and the mother is to pay all costs of the same.
- C. That paragraph F of the Recommendation of Amanda Smith, Domestic Case Manager previously filed with this court, which states; "Both parties should obey the Court's order of July 31st, 2002 and return to Joint therapy with Dr. Bill Albott." become an order of this court and that the modified parenting plan calling for supervised visitation remain in force until such time as the parties have resolved the conflict that gave rise to the seeking of outside intervention by persons not sanctioned by this court and Dr. Albott in consultation with Dr. Rodeheffer is willing to recommend a change in Parenting Plan. It is to be understood that this includes the Mother not having any contact with the daughter at school except for her attendance at scheduled parent/teacher meetings and other public gatherings for special events.

It is there for recommended that the above stated Domestic Case Manager's Recommendation be made an Order of this Court.
